MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 23.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TOTHE EVENING WORLD the black nat on a Twenty-third street it Takes Only a Trifle to Make (Including Postage):

able. The Evening World Prints Asso-

DOCTORS AS BURGLARS.

A more sensational tale of purclary than seldom finds its way into the news columns. Two physicians are under bonds commission of a series of robberies which the search. have been going on in the village for a have been going on in the village for a Now was the other woman's golden op- There are thousands of these poor children, year, the cracksmen growing bolder with portunity. She took a coin from her and to gladden the hearts of all, the assist-

The doctors were finally caught redhanded, being entrapped through the rose up and said : efforts of a detective from Chicago, who pretended to enter with them into a dollar gold piece, but you can find and scheme to rob the village bank of money keep it! Please let me off at Fourth are trees to be filled, candles to be bought, sent to pay off miners in the locality. avenue !" One of the physicians fired at the detective when he found he had been be- flushed up and looked so pained and send in what you can afford and send it at trayed, and had to be disabled before he mortified and humiliated that the con- once.

could be taken.

The wounded doctor was formerly of of the meanest tricks he ever saw played high standing and position in the country. on that line. He lost his practice through the effect of criminal charges preferred by a girl whom he attended about the time the robberies began. He was not convicted, but it is not impossible that his desperation then led hun to plunge into burglary. His Gascogne, which arrived yesterday, I saw a day, but thought I would help to buy some day, but thought I would help to buy some poor child a present. fellow practitioners had never stood high strikingly beautiful woman, who was subseand had never been recognized by him quently pointed out to me as Mme. de Bar-previous to his own downfall. The wounded man claims to be a victim of the cocaine habit and to have been crezed when he committed his crimes. As the story is told, however, this ples hear of the death of Roseberry, the famous is not likely to save him. Jumper. In trying to beat Filemaker's record

LOOK OUT. MR. CONNOLLY.

JAMES CONNOLLY, the Factory Inspecter, is running his Department in a way hurt. that is likely to cause his dismissal from office when the next Governor takes his seat. He is trying to freeze out certain the recovery of ex-Governor Hoadly. He of his subordinates, and is doing it at the was said to be rapidly gaining strength yes. Kalamazoo Famed for the Cultivaexpense of the factory employees for than at any time during his severe illness. whose welfare the system was established. Without grounds he has demanded the blanks necessary to the conduct of more than a million dollars in the trade, and Look out, Mr. ConnoLLY. You are a in the world on the value of rare volumes. public servant, not the proprietor of the ctory inspection system.

Brooklyn is practically without water. The bursting of the conduit at Ridgewood has cut off the supply. There is He's a little fellow, not over 5 feet 6 inches in water for sanitary purposes, and height, and his literary attainments are nomost of the Bridge cars and Elevated trains are stopped. Immediate action is necessary and no expense should be spared. A thousand men if needed should be out to work on the conduit. Minutes count as days in an emergency like this.

The best report of a football match ever printed in an afternoon paper was THE EVENING WORLD'S account of the Yale-Harvard game on Saturday. A direct wire ran between Hampden Park and Each play was wired as soon as made, and grounds or on the commons where boys play marbles.

A great obstacle to the manufacture of lead pendic will soon arise in the scarcity of soft cedar wood. At present the wood used in all the lead pendic in the world comes from Florida, and that amply is expected to be exhausted within five

The men who witnessed the prize-fight years. in which John Hellenger lost his life The marble chips left over from the construction are at large. The boys who were present of St. Patrick's Cathedral are said to have furhave been arrested. Why the discrimipation?

Another vitriol thrower is under arrest.

Fortunately he did no disfiguring. His intention was there, however, and he intention was there, however, and he intention was there, however, and he should be placed sately behind iron bars. pu

The trial and conviction of ALMY with-out a jury is a blot on New Hampshire. Of course he deserves his fate, but trial by is only twenty-eight years old. He is an Euglishjury is an institution of civilization.

The School Board investigation into the building frauds should go right on.

Then the Grand Jury. Free lectures will be given to-night in eight of the public schools. They are well worth attending.

Rapid transit must be pushed. The ion to the plans selected is short-

Two more deaths from street-car accints yesterday. Drivers must be more Weight does not always win. Vide Yale's victory.

PLATT's fine hand appears again in the Merry Christmas. Her Dire Revenge. I can't say what the woman with a brown hat on had done to the woman in car the other day. When I got on they sat opposite each other and were looking Them Happy. each other over in that cold and cruel way neculiar to the sex. Probably both had attempted to board the car at once, Small Sum. the woman in the brown bat, who wore No 2 shoes had speered at the No. 4's meanor was so marked as to be notice-By and by the woman in the brown hat. who held some change in her hand, started Mrs. M. E. B. to place it in her portemonnaie. In so William E. Strong doing a penny slipped from her fingers and rolled to the floor. She at once bent that which comes from Gardner, Ill., later half arose to peer under the opposite lay presents itself, no one should hesitate. "Oh, it was only a penny, sir," she to the poor children of this city, who do not Tree Fund which is designed to give presents whom the cheapest gift is a rare luxury.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS

> purse, let it fall to the floor, and her ance of every Evening Would reader is voice had the edge of a razor to it as she asked. You will not miss a small sum, and the You will not miss a small sum, and the Conductor, I have dropped a five. repay you tenfold for your - utlay.

shoes, hats and warm mittens by the hun-And the woman in the brown hat dreds to be procured, so lose no time, but Here's a Dollar.

M. QUAD.

THE GLEANER

Among the passengers on the steamship La rios. Nothing has been said recently regard-were extensively circulated a short time ago.

of 7 feet 314 inches in Chicago the other day

I am told that there are strong hopes for terday, and his condition was more favorable ticeable through their absence.

True Enough.

(From the Washington Frening Star.)
According to Commissioner Schultels's ob-country, are certain to be demoralized on the

Mr. Blaine's Easy Outlook.

nished marble dust for the manufacture of 24,000

Lady Someraet is a woman of very dark, almost

Ex-Senator Edmunds is a man of generous in

WILLANT VERSES

A Resemblance.

His velcome pipe Pan used to play. To white away the Summer hours. While hours run riot through the day. And played among the flowers. And when the shades of nig t would fall, His pipe upon his shoulder. He diplok his way to rustic tail.

O'er brier and tog and boulder.

in later days the college man
Has sound an avocation
Which severs of the time when Pan
Pareued his occupation;
For when the sun is high above,
Or when the moon is ripe,
Be girdly seeks the soluce of His ever-welcome pipe. —Princeton Time his held four little trays in hand, but threw them down kerplunk; He was a baggage ameeber and The trays were in a trunk.—Brooktyn Life.

Thrown Down.

The Amsteur Actress.

Time was she dreaded envy's sting.
but now she's growing wiser
And never does a single thing
That will not advertise her.

to people in needy circumstances.

000 gallons of sods water

I inclose $1 for the Christmas fund of THE EVENING WORLD. Mrs. M. E. B.

to spend. I was going to buy candy yester-

Wishes It Success.

Every Penny Helps.

THE CELERY CITY.

Bibliophiles all over the country will learn several resignations, and when specific with regret of the death of T. O. H. Burnham ish; it was salable, the consumers soon apparently starved herself in order to give charges were requested he relapsed into of Boston, the oldest dealer in antique and acquired a taste for it, and at the present silence. Since then he has kept back rare books in America. He had accumulated time there are thousands and thousands a dozen. When she was found dead on the more than a million dollars in the trade, and was conceded to be one of the first authorities in the world on the value of rare volumes.

As a great deal has been written lately about Col. Abs Shipsky, of St. Louis, it might be well to tell who he is. Incidentally, he is not a great statesman. He is St. Louis's three sides by these beautiful gardens, not a great statesman. He is St. Louis's three sides by these beautiful gardens, containing now nearly three thousand. containing now nearly three thousand acres o. land. The velvety black of the earth, the satiny green of the long, even rows of tender plants, exhaling their pungent, aromatic odor, is a constant delight to the senses of sight and smell.

Since the fame of "Kalamazoo celery" has become world wide and the success of the venture has been made unbil to ther f the venture has been made public other to Kalamazoo, and upon analysis the rich black soil has been found to contain cer-

The inventors of war machinery evidently feel their share of responsibility for McKinley, it would recall the only parallel incident to it—the one on the old farm, where the usually gentle cow, after giving ner usual splendid pall of milk, kicked it over—seemingly in sheer wantonness.

WORLDLINGS

WORLDLINGS

Agreat obstacle to the manufacture of lead pendid por the color of the children's recreation grounds or on the commons where boys uplay users less and the color of the color of the commons where boys are their own shippers, but the majority of the heavy-footed Hollanders are content with disposing of their produce to the shipper at a fair farm, where the usually gentle cow, after giving ner usual splendid pall of milk, kicked it over—seemingly in sheer wantonness.

WORLDLINGS

WORLDLINGS

Agreat obstacle to the manufacture of lead pendid parallel incident to it—the one on the old farm, where the usually gentle cow, after giving ner usual splendid pall of milk, kicked it over—seemingly in sheer wantonness.

WORLDLINGS

Agreat obstacle to the manufacture of lead pendid parallel incident to it—the one on the old farm, where the usually gentle cow, after grower, however, always a handsome dress.

Mrs. Mary E. Bryan ping off the outside stalks and roots, washing and tying it in bunches of a dozen each, in which the women and children often assist. It is estimated that the crop this year will be worth over $1,000,000.

Many of the growers are their own shippers, but the majority of the heavy-footed Hollanders are content with disposing of their produce to the shipper at a fair farm, where the usually gentle only after the one on the old farm, where the usually gentle one, after the one, and the shippers are content with disposing of their produce to the shippers, but the majority of the heavy-footed Hollanders are content with disposing of their produce to the shippers, but the majority of the heavy-footed their produce to the shippers, but the majority of the heavy-footed their produce to the beauty for their p over $1,000,000.

Many of the celery diggers are getting rich. The fame of this we interful industry having gone across the water, the tide of immigration from the old world is immense, every Hollander seeming to regard the "Celery City" as the Mecca to which he is increasing. o which he is journeying.

AN UNCOMMON NAME.

He-Don't you think it is wrong for people to marry their intellectual inferiors?

Prettily Said. [From the Jewelers' Weekly] Little Mary-Mamma, you' ea'wing is OPEN YOUR PURSE. THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR. TALKED OF BETWEEN ACTS. SPORTING NOTES AND NEWS.

They Have Watches in Rings-The Newest Thing in Boots-Some of the Leading Features in Hats.

Delight the Gentler Sex.

as medals on the shoulders, are now worn in the old thumb rings or the watches must be

Some elegant designs of infants' cloaks are of white bengaline, lined with satin and trimmed with Angora fur.

Among the many new styles in boots are the Oxfords, a high, dressy shoe for walking, made in patent leather, Russia leather, varnished and coze calf, soft finished kid and moreceo; the court shoes are ankle high, made of cove leathers, satin lined and ornamented with gilt buckles, claborately chased rough and ready boots made in oiled leathers Tree Fund was last year I send 25 cents to are blocked like a man's English walking Lovers of fine horsefiesh will be sorry to help this year, and trust it will be as success- shoe, and the travelling boots are cork soled and the instance.

> The leading features in hat shapes are low, medium-sized crowns, made of velvet, or capotes and toques of velvet. Paris houses trim their hats with laces in black and dianapolis, on Saturday, received a small allowance from an uncle in Ireland, which, in addition to what she earned by doing odd jobs, might have supported her after a fashright soil for growing this toothsome rel- ion if she had not kept so many cats. She of acres of celery in cultivation in South. floor of her room two cats guarded the body, pieces seem to have come to stay. Among the prettiest novelties of the season are the tall, slender glasses for long-stemmed flowers. some of these are tube-shaped, and meant to hold a single rose, while others flare slightly at the top, and have space for several flowers. These vases come in thin clear glass. and in glass of delicate shifting hues that are meant to suggest the famous iridescent make it the leading family magazine in the South. Death has twice entered her home in six months, and the gifted little woman success. Mr. Byrd will look after the publishing and Mrs. Bryan will edit the work in her New York home. Here's to the new lite of the Old Homestead!

A NIHILISTIC TRICK.

A Mother's Search Rewarded, but, Removal of a Big Cannon Just to on the Show Their Power.

Who Leads? "Help wanted" ads in the last thirty days: bined 4,174
WHO LEADS? "Help wanted ' ads in October: In the WORLD....

16.531

Down by the Horse Show.

Trimming of Children's Hats-Now Daly's Comedians Were Awfully Will the Mercenary Boxers Be English While in London.

> the rounds more numerous. This fact rather badly, on Manager French's own admission. The Casino Saturday night showed a lamentable failing off, and the Broadway was seriously afflicted all the week. "Alabama," that has been drawing crowds, allowed those who were there to see the color of the chairs during the past few days. "Miss Helyett" fell below the mark, and, as for Dixey, he fared very badly. "Rellly and the 400" had packed houses, probably because Harrigan's patrons are not conspicuously interested in horse fiesh. Said a manager yesterday: "It is a positive joy to have a good excuse for bad business. Have have a good excuse for bad business. Have you ever noticed that there is always some outside reason for empty houses. They are "The number of organizations comprising meetings of labor organizations."

visited the theatre Saturday night. He sat alone in an orchestra seat at the Star Theatre and saw "Miss Helyett." Apparently, he rings. Either the ring must be as large as alone in an orchestra seat at the Star Thea-

It is rumored that there was really one whole brick added to the work on the new Fifth Avenue Theatre Saturday.

At Cinderella's rehearsal last night:

Sarah dies in a variety of ways at the Standard Theatre this week. Tenight as Marguerite Gautier she succumbs to consumption; to morrow as Gilbert, a broken heart takes her off; Wednesday, as Adrienne, she mhales a poisoned bouquet and expires; Thursday, as Flora Tosca, she meets her death in the flowing Tiber, and Friday as Pauline Blanchard, insanity claims her. What a cheerium mortuary menu!

white.

"The Span of Life" is the name of a new melodrama of which William Caldwell owns the American and English rights. We are only just be juning to recover from "The starved at 417 East Twenty-fifth street, Indianapolis, on Saturday, received a small ton if she had not kept so many cats. She apparently starved herself in order to give food to her cats, of which she sometimes kept a dozen. When she was found dead on the floor of her room two cats guarded the body, one on each side. They were sleek and fat, while the woman was emactated to a skicle-ton.

Glass continues to be the favorite receptacle for flowers. The tail and massive epergnes that effectually concealed the guests scated on one side of the table from those ranged on the other have entirely disappeared, and the low bowls and flat dishes that have for some time been used as centre-visces seem to laws some time been used as centre-visces seem to laws compete to slave.

"watch the way our patrons hunt for the Broadway Theatre, the other night. "A man will step from the box-office to the doct, and on his way there he will stick those tickets in some out-oi-way-part of his dress suit. He will block the entrance while he goes through his pockets trying to find them. Others will hand the tickets to their wives and hunt through each pocket trying to locate the bits of pasteboard. It's funny how nervous they become hunting. I have always insisted that if it were fashionable to bring your Saratoga trunk to the theatre tickets, and Theatre, the other night. "A man will step from the box-office to the doct, and on his way there he will stick those tickets in some out-oi-way-part of his dress with the will block the entrance while he word, and on his way there he will stick those tickets in some out-oi-way-part of his dress, and the lockets to be will have the box-office to the will be will block the entrance while he word, and on his way there he will stick those tickets in some out-oi-way-part of his dress, and the box-office to the will be will block the entrance while he word, and the will block the entrance while he word, and the like tickets in some out-oi-way-part of his dress, and the broadway Theatre, the other his dress, and the broadway Theatre, the other his dress, and the broadway Theatre, the o

The Roman correspondent of a French journal speaks in very unfavorable terms of "L'Amico Fritz," the new opera by Mascagni, composer of "Cavalleria Rusticana." "We are very far," says this correspondent, "from the duzzling ineteor that the ridiculously exaggerated praise of "Cavalleria" led us to expect."

pect."
Thomas Q. Seabrooke says that although he is very fond of his part in "The Cadi," it does not fuifil his idea of happiness. Perfect theatrical biles to him is inseparable from comic opera. His idea is one day to play a legitimate comedy part in comic opera—a comedy part such as is found in the Gilbert and Sullivan's operas and nowhere else.

Mr. Blaine's Easy Outlook.

[Prom the Ciectand Press.]

Blaine does not need to proclaim himself a candidate. He has only to keep still and play with diplomacy in his artistic way. The mass of his party will take care of the nominating business for him.

Quay's Renewed Bossism.

[Prom the St. Louis Republic.]

It is a pleasing sight to see able Republican editors perspiring in the attempt to demonstrate that the party has not "vindicated"

Ouay. It has reinstated him as boss of Pennson and the seen found to contain certain properties which render the bleach, and these elements are not found in the celery lands in other parts of the State.

"Kalamazoo celery." is known the length and breadth of the land. Upon the first words which greet the eye of the hungry guest are: "Kalamazoo celery." The mere name of Kalamazoo celery." The mere name of Kalamazoo is a sure and unfalling guaranty of the tenderness, nuttines, and sweetness of the crisp table delicacy.

There are probably at the present time over four thousand men engaged in the colevy lands in other protection of Birds have pledged themselves never to wear the plumage of any song birds, says a foreign correspondent. Why, oh why, doesn't the lovely puchess and her 900 disciples look after the birds in the London gutters who are so much less able to fly from destruction?

Cloth dresses will be embellished with trimming of cotele plush mixed with metal. Over four thousand men engaged in the over four thousand men engaged in the colevy way. The near the protection of Birds have the puch and Sullivan's operas and nowhere else.

A London ciubman writes to a friend in the celevy the Protection of Augustin Daly, has railly accompany of Augustin Daly, has and "Daly's company of American completions" respondent. Why, oh why, doesn't the lovely puch and sullivan's operas and nowhere else.

Cloth dresses will be embellished with Each play was wired as soon as made, and an Extra, telling the result, was on the street precisely 2 minutes and 35 are pleasing sight to see able Republican conds after time was called. This was completed in the party has not "tridicated" day. It has relianted him as boss of Pennes, The Events to Wonth takes pardonable pride in laving been able to give its readers the first and lest news of this most interesting event.

German ingenuity has produced a new field gun which is said to be far more effect than anything France can show. The inventors of war machinery evidently feel their share of responsibility family feel their share of responsibility fami

A Man with Aversion to Dogs and

"She does say the most original There is a man in Washington who has a most uncommon name, and a paper in that city tells how he came by it.

The Odessa police force was put in great things," says Charlie. "I never go there that makes me but I hear something that makes me laugh for a week after. Now, the other leaves.

"She does say the most original things," says Charlie. "I never go there but I hear something that makes me laugh for a week after. Now, the other leaves.

[From Puck.] "Who wrote ' Farewell, a long farewell, to all my greatness?"
"Mme. Patti, I should fancy."

Fads, Fancies and Fashions That Attendance at the Theatres Cut Special Four-Round Bouts Declared to Be Illegal.

The horse show hurt the theatres very seThere is no branch of amateur athletics riously last week. Managers say that it is under the jurisdiction of the Amateur Athstrange that in a big city like New York there lette Union so hard to control and the riously and the riously last week. We do say, the riously last week. We have the property of the first to control and the riously last week. We have the property of the riously last week. We have the riously last we have the riously last week. We have the riously last we have the riously la strange that in a big city like New York there lette Union so hard to control and keep within should be a general complaint of bad business amateur rules as boxing. The very nature of Children's bats are neatly trimmed with at the theatres owing to a single rival attraction the sport is accountable for this. The temptwo rows of bex-claited ribbon around the tion. Yet it is a positive fact that the most tations to everstep the bounds of amateur crown and a high bow in the back. The edge important theatrical events of the season rules are great. Those who have attended of felt hats are often of a darker or contrast-ing shade of felt, which answers for an out-Bernhardt played "Cleopatra" to houses ence between the amateur and professional that must have caused her hair to stand on performances excepting that the stake for end. On saturday hight—the best theatre which the professionals fight for is larger and night of the week-the Standard was but half the rounds more numerous. This fact rather never caused by any deficiency in the play." the association that make boxing the lead-

Charles C. Hughes, Secretary of the Manhattan Athletic Club, said in relation to the matter of the giving of cash prizes to amateur boxers: "I have seen attempts made to nandle that question, but with little or no success. I am in favor of anything that will further the interests of amateur athletics, and to that end I think boxing should be cut irom the list of A. A. U. sports.

Then the boxers could form an organization of their own. The A.A. U. tries to do too much anyhow. Field and track athletics are the only branches that the A. A. U. should handle. It is all they can do and do well."

The friends of Billy Dacey have about comon his own account. The different recommendations arrangements to give that popular puglist a mammoth benefit at Turn Hall, Greenpeint, to-morrow light. Dan Suilivan, of Boston, will be master of ceremonies. Tommy Collett, the President of the St. George Athletic Club, who gave much satisfaction as the judge of wreatling at the Long Island championship, is now training for the Metropolitan Association wrestling championship, to be held at the Metropolitan Operations of the Metropolitan Association wrestling championship, to be held at the Metropolitan Operations of the Metropolitan Alex. Brown, of Brooklyn, is still trying to make a satisfactory match between Nick Callon and Pat Cahili.

There will be two games of football at the Polo Grounds Thanksgiving Day to decide the Gaelic championships. The clubs who will contest are: The Irish-Americans, the Shamrocks, the Mitchells and the Kickhams. The winning team will receive a set of gold medals and a team trophy. Silver medals will be given to the second team.

There are three very interesting pugilistic events slated for the coming month that are causing considerable speculation among the local sports. They are the meetings between Kelly and Pilmmer, Kenny and Callaghan and Avery and Moran.

The Longfellows and the Brookiyns will play a football game on the grounds of the Williamsburg Athletic Association Thanks-. . .

The Manhattan Athletic Club will issue a set of instructions for all who attend the great football match between Yaie and Princeton Thanksgiving Day. It will contain rules for those holding field stalls, a diagram of Manhattan Field and a map showing the routes vehicles may take to reach the grounds.

"'Ch. I don't know," she answered,
"except that I think he looks so conceited."

Advice is cheap, so are poor clocks; cheap eggs are no good, and a cheap mule is the meanest thing livery of New York and Brooklyn took place yearing. We guarantee our work so far as faithful workmanship is concerned.

Mr. Wifeseeker—You say the hand is an index to character. What should be the principal feature of a hand sought in marriage?

Professor of Palmistry—An abundance of diamond rings.

The second of the second

Man's good all-wool Suit. Any garments bought of us, we guarantee. Samples and measurement blanks mailed to out-of-town customers. We keep open every evening until 9 o'slock. Saturday until 11. MANN BROS., 314, 316, 316, 320 Grand st. Beaver Overcoate that are just put on our counters at $12.00, stylish and all wool. $12.00 buys a

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

The Socialist organization of the Twenty-third Assembly District' is collecting books to establish a library. It will be located at One Hundred and Seventh attect and First avenue.

The Federation of Labor of Baltimore has adopted resolutions denouncing the Masonic Fraternity is that city for allowing their new Temple to be built by "scales."

Waiters' Union No. 2 is discussing the question whether to disband, reorganize or join another union. It is understood that the charter will be held if ten members are willing to keep the Union

Bakers' Union No. 92 has removed its head quarters from 1422 Second avenue to 1851 Second Only five of the striking eigar-makers of S. A. Davis & Co., are still out of work, the rest having found employment elsewhere. A watchcase engravers' union is to be organized next Saturday evening, at 572 Wythe avenue, Brooklyn, E. D. Textile Workers' Union No. 23 has suspended its signiar meetings. The next meeting will be called Driven from the Amateur Ranks?

A rote of censure was passed resterday by the Central Labor Union on those members of its Arbitratica Committee who had appointed substitutes to de their work on a case concerning gold-basters bosses who employed non-union men. Delegate bosses who employed non-union men. Delegate same it. Jacobsec, of the Clothing Control Laborators bosses who employed non-union men. Delegate same it. Jacobsec, of the Clothing Control Laborators who employed non-union men. Delegate had been constituted a hould be urged that in the control that the constitute about the constitute of the Paper Hangers' Union, contended that such a motion was not necessary, as the constitution stated that the committee men themselves should act. The opinion of Delegate Architolaid was sustained by a vote of 45 against 1. Thereupon it was resolved that those members of the Arbitration Committee who had been paid by the treasurer for services rendered should be requested to refund the money, also that the Arbitration Committee and the delegates of the Gold-Besters' Union should be instructed to attend the next meeting of the C. L. U. Painters' and Decorators' Union No. I has been requested to arbitrate the differences between Painters' Unions Nos. 4 and 254, of Browklyn. Wystmaker. Union No. 110 has chang d in meeting day from We a salay to lionage ever, week, at the new headquarters. 120 Columbia street.

STORY OF A VIVANDIERE.

Heroine Now Reduced to Selling Matches for a Living.

heroine has been discovered. She is Mile. Louise de Beaulien, who a few days ago was authorized to sell matches in the treets on the ground that she had been deprived of her arm by a gunshot received in 1870, says the London Daily News. Her license also states that she was decorated with the military medal and eight medals for saving life by her intrepidity and heroism

I have been to see her in the dingy street near the Central markets, in which metting of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U. The Metropolitan Association has tried many times to root out these mercenary individuals, but with little success. The following explanation is given by a prominent athlete:

"The number of organizations comprising the association that make boxing the leading feature, and in many cases the only feature, are more numerous than those which cover the whole athletic field, so any measure that is likely to interfere with boxing in any way is voted down by the majority."

The months of November and December are the businest time for shoemakers, and just now their membership.

There is a uniformity of opinion among the officials of the Metropolitan Association that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that make boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that make boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and be controlled by an organization that boxing should be separated from other athletic sports and become and the National Association of Fencers.

The Hotels and place of the A. A. U., the same as the National Association of Fencers.

The Hotels and place of the A. A. U., the same as the National Association of Fencers.

The Hotels and place of the A.

martial, which sentenced her to On being taken to be executed she re-fused to let her eves be bandaged, and

The headquarters of the Waiters and Bartenders' National Union is to be removed from 385 Bowery to 132 West Twenty-seventh street, this week. A central employment bureau will also be opened at the latter place. The headquarters of the Walters and Bartenders' National Union is to be removed from 385 Bowers to 132 West Twenty-seventh street, this week A central employment bureau will also be opened at the latter place.

The Progressive Association of Steam-Fitters the Progressive Association of Steam-Fitters and tertainment at Clarendon Hall on Jan 2). The Progressive Association of Steam-Fitters thelpers will have their annual ball and evening entertainment at Clarendon Hall on Jan 2). The Progressive Massociation of Steam-Fitters and tertainment at Clarendon Hall on Jan 2). The Progressive Will go towards the benefit rund of the organization.

Yesterday's mass-meeting of the Carriage and Wagon Makers' Union at 197 East Fourth street was not well attended, but several new members were gained nevertheless, after speeches made by Messre Mann, Grob and Flaschel.

The Fresco Painters' Union has given a with drawal card to U. Huppke, who went into business on his own account. The different recommendations in regard to the apprentice question will be submitted to a special meeting to be held at an activity of the progressive Union No. 1 charges Cicting Cutters' Union No. 4 with having engaged an in the sortie of Buzenvai.

One of her feats was saving a child from and in the sortie of Buzenvai.

One of her feats was saving a child from the sixth floor of a house which took fire in the Rue Saint Honore. She spent $4,000 in the terrible Winter of the war in procuring comforts for the wounded, whom she nursed in ambulances.

SHOE SIZES. The Third of an Inch a Full Size in the Length. A third of an inch gives us a full size in length of shoe; a sixth furnishes the intermediate point between two sizes, the saving of which is desirable, if practicable, says the Shoe and Leather Reporter A small fraction of breadth goes a good way in securing comfort, and in girth of ball or instep an infinitesimal part of an inch is sometimes an ell of freedom; a quarter of an inch is a good deal of letting down or elevating at the heel, and the difference of a sixteenth is readily perceptible at the sole.

For these reasons sudden and extreme For these reasons sudden and extreme changes in size or weight of shoes are injudicious. Even the "paper sole" (which ought never to be worn in any place) should be replaced by one only a little thicker at first. After the Summer shoe, the proper thing is one of medium weight before the Winter article is in order, and area, that doesn't now mean a thick, cumeven that doesn't now mean a thick, cumbersome shoe, as it once did.

Very few shoe salesmen have a stock of patience that will hold out beyond the patience that will hold out beyond the trying on of the sixth pair of shoes for a woman customer. The lacing or unbuttoning of this number is considerable labor of itself; then with each new one tried there is the considerable.

Union No. I to form the Journsymon Brewers Union of New York. The Central Labor Union as records on the Control Labor Union as tweek. The Central Labor Union. Delegate Gas M. E. Labor Union as recording search and the C. L. U. for three consecutive meetings have had their seats of the section of the City. The Central Labor Union excused Delegate Sam H. Jacobson for uning the C. L. U. for three consecutive meetings have had their seats declared to the fact that the former can tell them more about shoes is sold by the meetings have had their seats declared to the meetings have had their seats declared vacant.

The Central Labor Union excused Delegate Sam H. Jacobson for uning the Q. L. U. sead upon the difference between the sexes.

Jack Rounder—Isn't Miss Belle a beauty? Mis: A .- Yes. But you know beauty is only skin deep.

J. Rounder-Well, I'm no cannibal. That's

Mrs. Trotter-Oh, Henry, do throw away

"The reason we are cures by unjust laws and hard times is because we have for years elected partisan politicians, in the low sense of the word to legislative and executive off. se., From the corrupt tree we get corrupt fruit. The representatives of the people should be pure, honest, enlightened men, standing upon a platform which should demand that the resources of life belong to the masses."—Prof. S. J. Bruttseen.

The Scale of the prices of a number of ELEGANTLY COVERT. Death of the prices of a number of ELEGANTLY COVERT. The prices of a number of ELEGANTLY COVERT. the prices of a number of ELEGANTLY COV-Eff.: D PARLOR SUITS. Our reason is, they are perishably covered goods, of which we have too large a stock for the season.

> quantity of BEDROOM SUITS IN ALL WOODS, handsome patterns, which we positively guarantee have been marked down in some instances 50 PER CENT., much below

production

Everything else in FURNITURE, BEDDING and DRAPERIES; the newest styles and lowest prices. "BUY OF THE MAKER,"

GEO. C. FLINT CO., FURNITURE MAKERS,

Factory 164, 156 West 19th st. loors, walnessting and all kinds of hardman National Committee.

opposite. Whatever the cause, their de-sents.

He'p the Poor Children to Have a

Everybody Can Afford to Send forward to look for it, and a few seconds When a chance to do good at a trifling out-on the charge of having led in the said, as the conductor entered to assist in know the pleasures of Christmas and to Now was the other woman's golden op-

Gives His Candy Money. Every Sunday my papa gives me ten cents

ing her coming marriage, rumors of which Tacks Editor Knowing what a success your Chilstmas of 7 feet 314 inches in Chicago the other day To the Editor.

he fell and was fatally hurt. He boat the Inclosed please find five cents, which I have record by 2 inches, but the effort cost him his saved up for your Christmas Tree Fund, hop-life. Jockey Blong, who rode him, was badly ing it will make many a little tot happy.

A. Michaelson.

> tion of the Plant. The black, rich muck proved to be the of the venture has been made public other Michigan cities have gone into the busi-ness and have made spasmodic efforts to take the palm from the "Celery City." It cannot be done.

The geographical position and the formation of the celery lands are peculiar servations, the imported citizens, even when they are desirable when they start for this wude.

Oh, the Misery of !t.

She—Yes: always wrong, and in some cases quite in possible.

Mamma—Rude, Mary? How is that?
Little Mary—It winks at me. In the Herald 6,315 enjoyed himself very much. He was particu-larly pleased with Mrs. Carter's dance in the finale of the second act.

At Cindercia's renearsal last night:
Mar ager Leslie (to leader of orchestra)—
You must play that dance as it is written. It is in G major and you swing off into E.
Comedia:—It is all right, Mr. Leslie. I told him to play it in that way. I can't possibly dance in G major.

Joseph Reynolds received a cable message from Langtry Saturday. It was to the effect that she had just tried a new society play by sydney Grundy.

QUEER KICKING FANCIES.

a Woman to Roosters. Charlie McDonald, the newsdealer on Washington street, occasionally gets a elean shave and goes out for an evening's ing and gambling for that girl of his.

recreation, says the Chicago Press. The last time Charlie had an evening he called on the young lady he calls his "original a most uncommon name, and a paper in that city tells how he came by it.

His mother was on the lookout for something original, and one day before his christening she notices in the door of a building the word "Nosmo."

This struck her fancy. Now for a middle name.

Later, coming along by the same building, she saw on the door the name of the way home from the church she asset of the same building she was christened so.

The struck her fancy. Now for a middle name.

Later, coming along by the same building, she saw on the door the name of the way home from the church she doors with the mames on them she had soler-star was not the way home from the church she doors were all shut, and behold: the doors with the names on them she had soler-star were all shut, and behold: the doors with the names on them she had soler-star was nown to grant the state of the course of the city. The following was tellings. "any Charles." It is a supposed that the revolutionists or nitings." any Charles. The week after. Now, the other work is the arm week after. Now, the other work is the same so of the Natchaluk of the city, the chief of the police, was a big on his case and uncontrollable desires and that is when he sees a dog my fine a week after. Now, the other word was a big of middle name.

Later, coming along by the same building shall be a same building shall be asserted to the official. It was not the same building shall be asserted to the same building shall be asserted to the shall be asserted to the same building shall be asserted to the police, was a big on his case and uncontrollable desires and that is when he sees a dog my here and uncontrollable desires and that is when he sees a dog my here and uncontrollable desires. The same shall be asserted that your and the course of the culty. The collection of the city, the chief of the course of the culty. The collection of the course of the police, was a big of mine, I rank Murphy, who has some the called the same building the word. The same policity of the course of the cult

Cardinal Wolsley a Plagiarist.

Branch 4. Brooklyn, of the Workmen's General Benefit Union, has expelled George Rohrssen, who, it is alleged, has embezzled $15.2 given to him to be handed to a member in distress. Rohrssen is supposed to be working in a cracker factory at Sa-vannah, Gar Several of Brooklyn's local boxers are look-ing forward with pleasure to Peter Maher's coming visit to that city, as they would like to accept his invitation to spar all comers. vannan, os.

The organized canmakers of Maryland will ask the Logislature of that State to prohibit oysters being shipped in quantities larger than a gallon, and the coopers' unions oppose the movement because they believe it would injure their trade.

Hugh Leonard, the clever wrestler, has been engaged as the permanent instructor of wrestling by the Manhattan Athletic Club.

and the coopers' unions oppose the movement because they believe it would anjure their trade.

The committee sent to Brewers' Union No. 1 by the New York Federation of Labor recommended at yesterday's meeting of the latter body that no further steps be taken in the matter, but to await developments. The recommendation was indorsed.

The tenement-house cigar-makers, who were suspended by President Strasser from the Cigar-Makers' International Union, have engaged counsel to see the organization for does paid during the time in which President Strasser had recognized them. The sum amounts to more than $10,000.

Machine Wood-Worker' Union No. 26 has sent a complaint to Factory Inspector Connoily, stating that his instructions relating to safety appliances are disregarded in many shops in this city, and that the factory rules, as prescribed by law, are not exhibited in most of the Shope.

Henry Foth, of Cabinet-Makers' Union No. 7, is the candidate of the Custom Varnishers and Pointers' Union of the American Federation of Labor. Il. M. Stoffers was voted for by Wood-Workers' Union No. 26 for the same office.

The Central Labor Union filled the following var-

No. 26 for the same office.

The Central Labor Union filled the following vacancies on its assertal committees presenter. Committees on Law. L. R. Roven, of the test Union; on the Auditing Committee, W. F. Connoily, John Henry and J. J. Garvin; on the Legislative Committee, Thomas Lapine and L. L. Brown. Brown.
Brown.
Brown.
Into the following credentials were received:
Labor the following credentials were received:
Labor the following credentials were received:
Laboratorial to the following continues to the following continues to the following content of the following c ware that the C. L. U. had any objections to his using the seal on that occasion.

The egg on which you printed 'I will marry the egg on which you printed 'I will marry the man what phinds this sig' came to me. I've got to crawl. The 'aig' was bad. Yours registrally,

A Transitory Sacrifice.

[From the Epoch.]

Pennoyer—Meritt gave up drinking, smoking and gambling for that girl of his.

Prettiwitt—Only for a time, though. He's going to marry her next month.

Preparing for Him.

[From Judge.]

Mrs. Cubbage—The new minister said he would call this evening.

Cubbage—Then you had better dust the Bible and turn down a few corners of the leaves.

Ware that the C. L. U. had any objections to his uning the seal on that occasion the testoring the restoring the restoring

104. 106 AND 108 WEST 14TH ST wood work.

LADIES, I sell Furniture without cash deposits, longest credit, engravous slock. Manufacturer Agent, 193 West 19th st.